Be the Difference—Join a Team That Makes Real-Life Impacts!

Karin Linden, Director of Clinical Services, Easterseals NH, says the heart of her work is the people.

Why does Karin Linden, Director of Clinical Services, recommend a career at Gammon Academy? When she first joined Easterseals NH Gammon Academy in July 2020, arriving on her first day having never seen the building due to COVID precautions, she was guided by one thing: mission.

"I was so impressed by the mission and the team members I talked to that I took the leap," she recalls. That leap has since led her from clinician to Director of Clinical Services, a role she describes as deeply meaningful.
