We're excited to share the rollout of our newly rebranded Behavioral Health Services program!

With outpatient locations in Manchester (open now!) and Franklin (coming in April), Behavioral Health Services by Easterseals NH now offers substance use treatment (formerly Farnum) alongside comprehensive mental health counseling through Veterans Count.

These services are available to adults—including Veterans, first responders, their families, and the broader community.

Our team continues to provide trauma-informed, person-centered care, supporting clients wherever they are on their journey.
